NARRATIVE:

Complainant was the victim of a deceptive practice (fraud/confidence game) which occurred on 03 JAN 2012 in which she lost $10,000. On 09-JAN-2012 at approximately 12:40, a person claiming to be "Lt. Brooks" of the Chicago Police Department District 017, called the complainant at home and claimed to be investigating financial fraud. "Lt. Brooks" told the complainant to meet him in the 017th District SW Parking Lot. She did meet "Lt. Brooks," who displayed a silver police star around his neck. "Lt. Brooks" proceeded to convince the complainant that as part of the investigation, he needed her to withdraw large sums of money from her bank and buy gold coins, which he then took to have "tested" to see if they were counterfeit. The accused then had the complainant drive him to the Summit Fire Department where he had her drop him off. (See case report for more detailed narrative.)
